The modern songs that printed in this book are good. Again, nice selection from over 40-50 years or so, and they work well. Plenty of really good writing that people can enjoy singing and playing along to. In summary, a good book with a nice selection of christmas music, though sadly spoilt by poor writing in the traditional carols.

The section in this book is fantastic!! Lots of old traditional carols, some mid-century songs that are now considered classics, and even some more recent Christmas songs from the last two or three decades. My inner teenage girl was quite happy to see songs by both Boyz II Men and *NSYNC were included.
