To illustrate how critical the clinical evaluation is in CST
evaluations, and that a clinical evaluation
cannot be replaced by a competency

It is common practice that when the issue of competency is raised, a forensic evaluation is subsequently conducted. These evaluations are court-ordered the majority of the time and may take place in numerous locations such as jails, community-based outpatient centers, or mental health centers (Vitacco, Rogers, Gabel
