Terence William (Terry) Dowling (born 21 March 1947), is an Australian writer and journalist. He writes primarily speculative fiction though he considers himself an "imagier" - one who imagines, a term which liberates his writing from the constraints of specific genres. He has been called "among the best-loved local writers and most-awarded in and out of Australia, a writer who stubbornly ...

People lived in Scotland for at least 8,500 years before Britain's recorded history. At times during the last interglacial period (130,000–70,000 BC) Europe had a climate warmer than today's, and early humans may have made their way to Scotland, with the possible discovery of pre-Ice Age axes on Orkney and mainland Scotland. Glaciers then scoured their way across most of Britain, and only ...

Religion is an essential element of the human condition. Hundreds of studies have examined how religious beliefs mold an individual's sociology and psychology. In particular, research has explored how an individual's religion (religious beliefs, religious denomination, strength of religious devotion, etc.) is linked to their cultural beliefs and background.
